

Head of General Foundation Program

Sohar University is a modern and progressive institution meeting the needs of contemporary society and contributing to the economic and cultural wellbeing of Oman and our international neighbours . We are located on world class campus only 2 hours from Muscat & Dubai. We seek to appoint innovative, committed and ambitious academic staff who share our vision for quality higher education.

Essential Qualifications/Experience

- PhD or M.S degree (preferred with TESOL) in Linguistics, Educational Leadership or other related GFP fields.
- Substantial working experience not less than three years in Higher Education institutions.
- The candidate Academic Rank should not be less than Assistant Professor.
- Extensive academic experience in a field related to GFP programs.
- Excellent research record demonstrated by successful funding and publications.
- Excellent interpersonal, communication and analytical skills.
- Excellent proficiency in English.
- Quality communication and effective teamwork skills.

Compensation Package

- Attractive salary commensurate with qualifications/experience + housing and transportation allowance.
- Medical insurance for Omanis staff (grant for staff only).
- Medical insurance for staff, spouse and 2 children under age of 18 years living in Oman for non-Omani candidates.
- Two year contract renewable subject to mutual agreement between the two parties (for non Omani candidates).
- Seven weeks paid annual leave and return air travel for staff, spouse and 2 children under age of 18 years to country of origin.
- End of contract gratuity (for non-Omani candidate).